The big day came very quickly, and suddenly it was the night before the charity show. I could not sleep at all that night because I was so excited. "Will it be a success?" I kept asking myself.

Twenty minutes before the big event, the doors opened and many people came into the theatre. "No time to be nervous any more. This is it," I told myself. A lot of people came to watch the show. They were making a lot of noise, so I had to speak loudly.
